

Education Research & Data Center (ERDC)

A branch of Washington State's Office of Financial Management, ERDC compiles data about students as they move through school to the workforce. Combining data from OSPI and higher education institutions it is able to offer insights into whether high school programs and interventions influence post- secondary enrollment or workforce out comes. ERDC offers the public multiple data dashboards on topics ranging from early learning to earnings for graduates.

To visit the ERDC High School Graduate Outcome Dashboard, please click here