Healthy Youth Survey (HYS)

The Healthy Youth Survey is a student perception survey, that asks students about their thoughts, feelings and behaviors pertaining to a variety of health and safety topics, including school climate and community safety, anxiety and depression, substance use, healthy eating habits and physical activity. Results can help inform schools and communities how to best serve youth.

To access the results from the Healthy Youth Survey, please click here.

Or

To learn more about the Healthy Youth Survey, please click here.